First Minister's Reading Challenge

We are launching the First Minister's Reading Challenge next week on Friday Morning. Parents are invited to the launch assembly at 9am then following this there will be shared learning in all classes from P1 – P7. You are welcome to come along and see some of the reading follow up tasks that the children will be taking part in.

Christmas Fundraising

Plans for the Christmas Fair are coming along. We have started some fundraising already. Pupils may have a guess at the following:

Guess the name of the snowman 50p , Guess Minnie Mouse's birthday 50p or Guess the sweeties in the jar 20p . They can pop into the office with their money and give it a go. Answers will be revealed at the Christmas Fair on Saturday 9th December.

Great British Bake Off

If you are suffering from withdrawal symptoms at no more GBBO for a whole year, you may be interested in this email we received from the production company:

We are currently looking for a fresh batch of brilliant, amateur bakers who would love to enter the tent for our ninth series of the show. If anyone is interested in the opportunity to take part see below:
